Fellowship is about your family's faith, kindness, and respect for others. You'll share traditions, do something kind, and learn about a faith different from yours. You may find people share more than you'd think.

Requirements

Every official requirement, in plain language. Check the official wording when you sign off (scouting.org/cub-scout-adventures/fellowship/). Tips and examples are ideas, not extra requirements.

- ☐ 1 With a parent or legal guardian, discuss the faith traditions of your family; name three holidays or celebrations from them and make a craft, artwork, or food item tied to your favorite

Tip: Ask about three holidays your family celebrates, then make a craft, art, or food for one.

Example: Make a family recipe for a holiday with your adult, decorate a card for it, or create a paper decoration. Share with your den why your family celebrates that day.

- ☐ 2 Go with your family to a religious service or other gathering where your family shows reverence

Tip: Go with your family to a service or gathering, and notice how people show reverence.

Example: With your family, go to a service or gathering. Afterward, talk about how people there showed reverence, like quiet moments, prayer, music, or helping others.

- ☐ 3 Carry out an act of kindness

Tip: Help a neighbor, write a thank-you note, or share with a friend.

Example: Rake leaves for a neighbor with your adult, sit with someone who's alone at lunch, or write a thank-you note to a teacher.

- ☐ 4 With your parent or legal guardian, pick a religion or faith different from your own and find two things it shares with your family's beliefs

Tip: Read about or ask a friend about another faith. Find two things it has in common with yours.

Example: Learn about another faith from a library book or a friend's family. You might find two things in common, like a holiday with special food and a teaching about helping people in need.
