Let's Camp gets you ready for a Cub Scout campout and gives you more camping skills. You'll pack your gear, help set up a tent, and stay with your buddy. Then you'll enjoy a night outdoors with your pack.

Requirements

Every official requirement, in plain language. Check the official wording when you sign off (scouting.org/cub-scout-adventures/lets-camp-bear/). Tips and examples are ideas, not extra requirements.

☐ 1 Review how the buddy system works outdoors

Tip: Practice buddy checks at a meeting so they're easy at camp.

Example: Review the rules with your den: stay with your buddy everywhere, check in with your adult, and when someone calls buddy check, find your buddy and raise your hands together.

☐ 2 Pack the Cub Scout Six Essentials to bring on the campout

Tip: Pack your Six Essentials in a small bag you can carry yourself.

☐ 3 Besides the Six Essentials, show the personal gear you will need for the campout

Tip: Lay out your sleeping bag, warm clothes, and toothbrush, and show them to your leader.

Example: Your gear might include a sleeping bag, a pad, pajamas, a warm hat, a rain jacket, extra socks, a toothbrush, and a water bottle. Pack it all in one bag you can carry.

- ☐ 4 Help set up a tent; pick a good spot for it and explain why you chose it

Tip: Look for a flat spot without rocks, roots, or low spots where water collects, then help pitch the tent.

Example: A good tent spot is flat, free of rocks, roots, and pinecones, not in a low spot where rain collects, and not under dead branches. Explain your choice, then help set up.

- ☐ 5 Go on a pack campout or attend a Cub Scout overnight camp run by your council or district

Tip: Go to a pack campout or council overnight and enjoy it.
