Roaring Laughter is all about having fun with humor. You'll tell jokes, try tongue twisters, and act out silly skits. Laughing together brings your den closer.

Requirements

Every official requirement, in plain language. Check the official wording when you sign off (scouting.org/cub-scout-adventures/roaring-laughter/). Tips and examples are ideas, not extra requirements.

☐ 1 Think about what makes you laugh and discuss it with your den or family

Tip: Talk about what makes you laugh, like funny faces, jokes, or silly stories.

Example: Make a list of things that make you laugh: a puppy chasing its tail, a funny voice, a surprise ending. Share it with your den and see whose lists are alike.

☐ 2 Practice reading tongue twisters

Tip: Try a tongue twister slowly, then faster and faster.

Example: Start slow with a classic tongue twister, then speed up. Then make up your own using words that start with the same sound, like "Bears bake big blueberry biscuits."

☐ 3 Play charades with your den or family

Tip: Play charades with your den or family. Act out animals, movies, or sports.

☐ 4 Hold a contest for the funniest joke with your den or family

Tip: Have everyone tell a joke, then vote for the funniest. Keep jokes kind.

Example: Each person tells their best joke, and everyone votes with a thumbs up. Keep jokes kind: no jokes that make fun of a person or a group of people.

☐ 5 Practice run-ons with your den or family

Tip: Practice a short run-on skit you can do at a campfire.

Example: A run-on is a quick joke skit. One Scout walks across holding an empty leash. Another asks, "What's that?" "My invisible dog. Want to pet him?" "No thanks, he looks like he bites."
