Tiger Circles is about your family's faith traditions and being kind. You'll talk about holidays you celebrate, attend a service or gathering, and do something kind for another person. It's a chance to share what your family values.

Requirements

Every official requirement, in plain language. Check the official wording when you sign off (scouting.org/cub-scout-adventures/tiger-circles/). Tips and examples are ideas, not extra requirements.

- ☐ 1 Talk with your parent or legal guardian about your family's faith traditions; name three of its holidays or celebrations and draw your favorite

Tip: Ask your family to name three holidays you celebrate, then draw the one you like best.

Example: Your family names three holidays you celebrate. You draw your favorite, maybe the special meal, the lights, or visiting relatives, and tell your adult why it's the best one.

- ☐ 2 Go with your family to a religious service, or another gathering where your family shows its Family & Reverence

Tip: Attend a service or gathering with your family and talk afterward about what you noticed.

Example: Go with your family to a service, prayer time, or gathering that fits your family's beliefs. Afterward, talk about one thing that felt special, like a song, a story, or a quiet moment.

☐ 3 Do an act of kindness

Tip: Do something kind, like making a card for a neighbor or helping a sibling without being asked.

Example: Kindness could be making a card for a neighbor, helping a younger sibling get dressed, sharing your snack, or drawing a picture for a friend who's sad.
