Tiger Tag is about playing active games and being a good sport. You'll play games and relays with your den, talk about sportsmanship, and cheer at a real sporting event. It's all about moving and having fun together.

Requirements

Every official requirement, in plain language. Check the official wording when you sign off (scouting.org/cub-scout-adventures/tiger-tag/). Tips and examples are ideas, not extra requirements.

- ☐ 1 Play an active game with your den; tell your adult partner or den why you like it

Tip: Play a game like tag or freeze dance with your den, then say what you liked about it.

Example: Play freeze tag with your den. Afterward, share why you liked it: "I liked unfreezing my friends, because it felt like being a superhero."

- ☐ 2 Play a relay game with your den; tell your adult partner or den why you like it

Tip: Try a relay, like passing a ball or hopping in a sack, and share your favorite part.

Example: Play a spoon relay: carry a small ball on a spoon to a cone and back, then hand it to the next teammate. Share your favorite part, like when your whole team cheered.

- ☐ 3 Talk with your adult partner or other Tigers about what being a good sport in a game means

Tip: Talk about what good sports do, like taking turns, cheering others, and saying good game.

Example: A good sport says "good game" to the other team, doesn't brag when they win, doesn't pout when they lose, follows the rules, and cheers for teammates even when they make a mistake.

☐ 4 Go to a sporting event

Tip: Go to a school, local, or pro game with your family and watch how players show sportsmanship.

Example: Go to a high school soccer game with your family. Watch for good sportsmanship, like players helping someone up after a fall or shaking hands at the end.
