Eagle Palms recognize Eagle Scouts who keep growing by earning more merit badges and continuing to lead. Each set of five extra badges earns a Bronze, Gold, or Silver Palm. Any extra badges you earned before Eagle can count right away.

Requirements

Every official requirement, in plain language. Check the official wording when you sign off (scouting.org/wp-content/uploads/2025/12/Scouts-BSA-Rank-Requirements.pdf). Tips and examples are ideas, not extra requirements.

- ☐ 1 Since earning Eagle or your last Palm, show Scout spirit by living the Oath and Law; share how you've carried out your duty to God and lived the Oath and Law day to day

Tip: Keep living Scout spirit after Eagle. Be ready to share examples and talk about your duty to God.

Example: Share a recent example of Scout spirit, like staying with a younger Scout who struggled on a long hike, and talk about how your duty to God or your values have grown since your Eagle board of review.

- ☐ 2 Keep setting a good example by taking on responsibility or showing leadership

Tip: Mentor younger Scouts, take on a troop role, or lead a project. Your example matters even more now.

Example: Leadership after Eagle might be teaching the new-Scout patrol to cook, coaching a Life Scout through their project proposal, serving as a troop instructor, or working on summer camp staff.

- ☐ 3 Earn 5 more merit badges beyond those needed for Eagle or your last Palm (any earned since you became a Scout count); Bronze = 5, Gold = 10, Silver = 15

Tip: Track your badges beyond Eagle and plan the next five. Try badges in areas you've never explored, like a trade or a new sport.

Example: A Bronze Palm set could explore new ground: Welding, Programming, Public Speaking, Wilderness Survival, and Kayaking. For Gold or Silver, try five in a career field you're thinking about.
